STUDENT MILITARY SERVICE

POLICY

Students called to active military duty may withdraw from SDSM&T.

PROCEDURES

1. Students required to withdraw from state supported institutions before completing a semester may receive credit and refund privileges if the individual is a regularly enrolled student, belongs to a military unit called for duty, or is drafted and not eligible for deferment, and the discontinuance of class attendance is on the last practicable day before reporting for duty as determined by the college or university in which the student is enrolled.
2. An eligible student who is required to report for military duty not earlier than four calendar weeks prior to the date a semester ends as stated in the official catalog of the institution, or after completion of at least 75 percent of an extension enrollment, will be given full credit for all courses or lessons in which the student has an average of "C" or better.
3. An eligible student who receives credit for any course or lesson for which the student is enrolled will not be entitled to any refund of tuition or fees paid for the privilege of pursuing such course or lesson.
4. An eligible student who does not receive credit for a course or lesson for which the student is enrolled will be entitled to a full refund of tuition and academic fees.
