BEHAVIOR POLICY

SD MINES SUMMER CAMPS

In the best interest and safety of class participants, SD Mines has a two strike policy regarding inappropriate behavior.

The first incident of inappropriate behavior will result in the parent or guardian being informed of the behavior at which point the parent or guardian will have the option to removing the student from the program.

The second inappropriate behavior incident shall result in expulsion from the program. If the behavior results in expulsion, no refund or travel expenses shall be given.
