

Know Your IX at School of Mines

1 Title IX Defined:

"No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

-Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and its implementing regulation at 34 C.F.R. Part 106

2 Who Does Title IX Protect?

-Students -Staff -Faculty -Visitors/Guests

4 Who is the Title IX Coordinator?

SOUTH DAKOTA

SCHOOL OF MINES & TECHNOLOGY

Amanda Lopez
Title IX & Disability Coordinator
Surbeck Center
501 E. St. Joseph Street
Rapid City, SD 57701
(O) 605.394.2533 | (F) 605.394.2721
www.sdsmt.edu

3 What Does Title IX Cover?

- Sexual Harassment
- Prevention of Sexual Assault
- Domestic/Dating Violence and Stalking
- Human Rights Complaint Procedures
- Equal Opportunity, Non-Discrimination, Affirmative Action

5 How do I Report a Concern?

- Call the Title IX Office at 605- 394-2533
- Send an email to amanda.lopez@sdsmt.edu
- Report anonymously at studentconduct.sdsmt.edu

6 Who has a Duty to Report?

All university staff have a legal and ethical obligation to address issues brought forth. Every complaint is handled in a sensitive manner. Any inquiry, allegation, or report will result in review of the situation and an investigation if warranted.

7 Confidential Campus & Community Services:

SDSMT Counseling Department	605-394-1924
Crisis Care Center	605-391-4863
Working Against Violence, Inc. (WAVI)	605-341-3292
Suicide Prevention Hotline	800-273-TALK

8 Non-Confidential Resources:

Campus Safety	605-394-6100
Community Standards	605-394-2348
Dean of Students	605-394-2416
Title IX/Disability Services Office	605-394-2533

*You may also report to faculty, staff, and resident assistants.

9 Title IX Accommodations and Interim Measures:

Interim measures are available upon receipt of a Title IX complaint. These include, but are not limited to, academic support, revised class schedule, housing arrangements, victim advocacy, counseling, health services, and the right to report a crime to campus or local law enforcement.

www.sdsmt.edu/TitleIX