The Historic Hotel Alex Johnson

Built in the Roaring Twenties by a railroader who had a flair for luxury and a deep appreciation of the Sioux Indian culture, the Hotel Alex Johnson is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. A short walk to the Civic Center, the Hotel is a landmark of the downtown skyline.

The original design motifs in the lobby and elsewhere on the property have been preserved just as they were when the Hotel was built.

The award-winning, service-oriented Hotel features Seattle’s Best Coffee, Paddy O’Neill’s Pub & Casino, Vertex Sky Bar, Alex Johnson Mercantile, Wicked Salon & Spa, entertainment and recreation. For the convenience of our guests, the Vertex Sky Bar and Paddy O’Neill’s offers in house catering and dining.

In the grand hotel tradition, the Historic Alex Johnson Hotel has played host to six U.S. Presidents.
